

Education Element (E²)

Evidence Based learning principles for Medical Education

- Scenario: A rotating medical student approaches you for advice regarding their studying as they begin their 3rd year of school. They express they are having difficulty balancing the increased stresses of clinical work and